McNeilus and Waste Connections Executives Elected to EREF Board of Directors

Raleigh, NC – The Board of Directors of the Environmental Research and Education Foundation (EREF) is pleased to announce the election of its newest members:

Frank Busicchia

Vice President of Sales, McNeilus Truck and Manufacturing Co.

James M. Little

Senior Vice President – Engineering and Disposal, Waste Connections, Inc.

Frank Busicchia began his career with Oshkosh Corporation in 1997, as a Regional Sales Manager covering the Northeast United States; which came to include McNeilus Truck & Mfg. products when Oshkosh acquired them in 1998. In 2006 he became the Director of Sales for that region. Frank moved to McNeilus headquarters in Dodge Center, MN when he accepted the Director of National Sales position in 2008. Most recently he was promoted to Vice President of Sales in September of 2010, where he is responsible for all whole goods and aftermarket sales, both domestically and internationally for McNeilus Companies; which also includes Iowa Mold Tooling (IMT), CON-E-CO and London Machinery.

James M. Little has been Senior Vice President – Engineering and Disposal of Waste Connections since February 2009. From September 1999 to that date, Jim served as Vice President – Engineering. Jim held various management positions with Waste Management, Inc. (formerly USA Waste Services, Inc., which acquired Waste Management, Inc. and Chambers Development Co. Inc.) from April 1990 to September 1999, including Regional Environmental Manager and Regional Landfill Manager, and most recently Division Manager in Ohio, where he was responsible for the operations of ten operating companies in the Northern Ohio area. Jim is a certified professional geologist and holds a B.S. degree in Geology from Slippery Rock University.
